VETO OF TAFT STILL STANDS

Attempt to Override Same in House Is Fruitless.

ON WOOL AND FREE LIST BILLS

Solid Democracy, with Assistance of Insurgent Republicans, Make Unsuccessful Assault on Presidential Damper.

Washington, Aug. 19.—An earnest but ineffectual effort to override President Taft's veto of the farmers' free list and wool bills was made by the solid Democracy of the house, aided by the last-ditch insurgents on the Republican side.

On the wool bill, with 23 Republican insurgents joining hands with the Democrats, the vote was 227 to 129. On the basis of the total vote cast, the 227 members registered in favor of overriding the president's veto was 14 shy of the necessary two-thirds.

On the free list bill, with 25 Republican insurgents assisting the majority, the vote was 226 to 127. This vote of 226 in favor of passing the bill over the veto was 11 votes under the necessary two-thirds.

The Republicans who voted with the Democrats on the bill were: Representatives Alken, of New York; Anderson, Davis, Lindbergh, Steenerson, and Volstead, of Minnesota; Hanna and Helgesen of North Dakota; Haugen, Hubbard and Woods of Iowa; Jackson, Madison, Murdock and Young of Kansas; Kent of California, LaFollette and Warburton of Washington, Norris of Nebraska, and Lenroot, Morrison and Nelson of Wisconsin.

There were several switches when the record vote on the free list measure was taken. Representatives Kinkead and Sloan of Nebraska, Lafferty of Oregon, and Morgan of Oklahoma, who had voted against overriding the veto on the wool bill, voted with the Democrats on this measure. Representative Miller of Minnesota, who had voted with the Democrats on the wool bill, became regular on the free list bill.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The statehood resolution offered by Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, chairman of the senate committee on territories, which was revised at a conference of the joint committees on territories of the two houses, passed the senate by a vote of 53 to 8.

The new resolution omits the recall of judges from the Arizona constitution and makes it imperative that this elimination should be accepted by the people of Arizona as a condition of their coming into the Union. Certain modifications are suggested in the constitution of New Mexico, which are intended to make that document easier of amendment.
